THE DAILY STORE NEWS OF LANSBURGH & BRO.

EDITORIAL

The biggest asset that this, or any store can lay claim to is the good will of its custom-ers and friends. We do not feel egotistical in saying that the Store of Greater Service possesses a great amount of this good will great amount of this good will, neither can we buy it. It will always be ours so long as we deserve, it. Knowing this, we are always exceedingly careful not to disappoint or offend. The only way we can hope to hold this good will is on the merit of goods and the manner in which we sell and deliver these goods. Good will can only be held in one way—by the right of deserving it. It is our constant hope that we shall deserve it in the 57 years to come as we have in the 57 years just passed.
